OBJECTIVE OF THE COURSE

A robust dispute resolution system is one of the basic requirements of Good Governance. The Alternative dispute resolution techniques have started gaining ground across the globe, of which 'Mediation' has been looked upon as the most viable and effective technique. The importance of 'Mediation' is that it gives a fair and honorable treatment to the conflicting parties and facilitates dispute settlement in a win-win situation. Considering the universal acceptability of 'Mediation' Maharashtra National Law University Mumbai proposes to conduct a 'one week Programme in Mediation Training' in association with the Family Court Bar Association Mumbai.

WHO WILL BENEFIT?

This training program will benefit retired Judges, Solicitors, Lawyers practicing in varied courts and fora including Civil / Commercial Courts, Family Courts, RERA etc. and Social-Workers, Counselors, Conciliators, Child-Parenting experts and Law Students pursuing graduate & post graduate courses.

RESOURCE PERSON

Mediation Training will be conducted by Senior Advocate Mr Ajay Mehta, an eminent Mediation Trainer accredited by Hon'ble Supreme Court of India. He has imparted mediation training to around 1500 judges as also to advocates, Law Students, bureaucrats, social workers, chartered accountants and corporate personnel across the country.

No. of Participants is limited to 40 on account of Covid 19 Pandemic for the purpose of social distancing
