

Maharashtra National Law University Mumbai

(Established under the Maharashtra Act VI of 2014)

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE

Padmashree Prof. (Dr.) N. R. Madhava Menon, 'Father of the Modern Legal Education in India', was an active member of the General Council and Executive Council of Maharashtra National Law University Mumbai (MNLU Mumbai). Prof. Menon had played a crucial role in establishment of this University. MNLU Mumbai is squarely based on the innovation in the form of National Law Universities conceptualized by Prof. Menon. The University owes its sincere gratitude to Prof. Menon for being the guiding spirit and constant support in its endeavors of promoting and providing quality legal education in India.

The sad demise of Prof. Menon has come as an irreparable loss to the country and MNLU Mumbai family. In the light of this loss MNLU Mumbai reaffirms its commitment in realizing the goal envisioned by Prof. Menon and advance the same by promoting and imparting specialized and systematic legal education, training and research in the domain of law.

MNLU Mumbai deeply mourns the loss of the member of MNLU Family, the visionary and legal luminary Padmashree Prof. (Dr.) N. R. Madhava Menon.
