Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor's Message from the Desk

"It's only after you've stepped outside your comfort zone that you begin to change, grow, and transform."— Roy T. Bennett

Bennett

With a sense of delight and pleasure, I welcome the readership of this very issue of the Newsletter. I deeply believe that the stakeholders of this esteemed University will give their best to be the instrument of change in society by being an active catalyst as far as humanism and social-commitment are concerned. Besides the regular teaching-learning activities, I hope, students and teachers will, alike, strive for high-quality research in the fields of Law and Social Sciences. We are bound by the concept of the Founding Fathers of India i.e. Tryst with Destiny. So, let us accept this herculean task to make the fruits of knowledge accessible to everyone irrespective of one's caste, creed, gender, region, religion etc.

Let's dream and act for the aforementioned.

Best Wishes!

Prof. Dr. Dilip Ukey
Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor
MNLU Mumbai

MESSAGES FROM THE DESK

HOD UG & PG Message from the Desk

We sincerely welcome all the students and researchers alike. Nothing stops us from believing that this new generation Z will be able to grab their dreams of legal proficiency and beyond. Its research, scholarship and social commitment will change the face of our society. As we know Law is a serious discipline which requires absolute dedication and commitment. So we believe that you would try your level best to accomplish your dream in the Legal Carrier, and Leadership. We also take this opportunity to assert that we are really blessed to perform under the able leadership and guidance of our beloved Hon'ble Vice Chancellor and Registrar.

Let's learn and grow together.

Best Wishes to All!

EDITOR'S NOTE

It is with great delight the Second Edition of Maharashtra National Law university, Mumbai newsletter is going to be published, which was much duly awaited. This issue reflects the students and respected faculty members creativity and list of achievements, that is the essence of this newsletter. Students have put forth their ideas and thoughts that are too deep to be expressed and too strong to be suppressed. This time the world was celebrating 8th March as International Women's Day, Michelle

Obama the first African American First lady of the USA said, "There is no limit to what we, as women, can accomplish"

Rightly said by her this day reminded us of all the journey for equality, dignity, rights, being vocal and representing the opinion, need and status of women at all spheres in our lives. Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg of the US a key figure the field of law once said "Women belong in all places where decisions are being made. It shouldn't be that women are the exception" It was celebrated by us on the campus as well by having donation drive campaign for the disadvantaged section of women in our society and event for us to reflect the importance of the role of women in our lives and what had achieved because of their sacrifices from being mothers, teachers and so many more hats and the role they dawn for the entire society to function. This magazine is before you due to the combined efforts. I take the opportunity to thank all the contributors, the newsletter team, students, and faculty members of our university as their contribution is the reason that makes this magazine endearing with our readers.

EDITORIAL BOARD'S NOTE

With immense joy, we present to you the long-awaited Second Edition of the Maharashtra National Law University, Mumbai Newsletter. This issue is a true reflection of the creativity and remarkable achievements of our students and respected faculty members, making it a compelling compilation of our university's essence.

Our students have poured their hearts and minds into this Newsletter, expressing ideas and thoughts that are profound and powerful, too significant to be confined and too potent to be suppressed. It is a testament to the vibrant and diverse community that MNLU Mumbai fosters, where ideas are nurtured, and voices are heard. The efforts that have gone into creating this magazine are a testament to the collective dedication of our contributors, the newsletter team, students, and faculty members of our university. It is their unwavering commitment that has made this magazine not just a compilation of information but a truly endearing and meaningful read for all our esteemed readers.

Amidst the vibrancy and dynamism of Mumbai, the COVID-19 pandemic cast a shadow over the entire world, and Maharashtra National Law University Mumbai was not exempt from its impact. The outbreak posed unprecedented challenges to the university community, forcing a swift shift to remote learning and disrupting the usual campus life.

However, true to the spirit of Mumbai and the resilience it embodies, the university community came together to face the adversity head-on. The community adapted quickly to the new circumstances, embracing online education and virtual interactions. Despite the physical distance, the sense of unity and camaraderie amongst the university members remained unwavering.

As the world gradually navigated its way through the pandemic, MNLU Mumbai emerged stronger and more adaptable than ever. The experience of facing and overcoming such a significant challenge further enriched the educational journey of the students, equipping them with invaluable skills of resilience, adaptability, and compassion.

As we navigate through the pages of this Newsletter, we hope it captures the essence of Maharashtra National Law University, Mumbai, and leaves you inspired by the extraordinary talents and achievements of our university community.

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to each and every one of you for your continued support and engagement with our Newsletter. Together, we will continue to foster an environment of creativity, growth, and academic excellence at MNLU Mumbai

SOCIETIES

MOOT COURT SOCIETY

Maharashtra National Law University, Mumbai is one of the premier National Law Universities in India. The prime goal of the University is to disseminate advanced legal knowledge and processes of law amongst the students and impart to them the skills of advocacy, legal services, and legal reforms and make them aware and capable of utilizing these instruments for social transformation and development. Ever since the advent of the university in 2014, it has irrefutably climbed the ladder. Within a span of seven years the University has traversed an arduous yet promising path filled with lots of possibilities for the future.

The Moot Court Society at MNLU Mumbai was established with the aim of nurturing budding mooters and guide them to glory. We have worked with a diverse pool of students, helping them grow into the best version of themselves. With bona fide intentions, to instill aptitude for not just learning the law but how it should be applied and interpreted in any given situation. The Moot Court Society will continue to enrich the mooting culture at both national and international platforms. The Moot Court Society proceeds with conducting Novice Moot Court Competition for beginners or first time mooters to help them enhance the requisite skills for dispute resolution by giving them an exposure to a mooting environment. The society organizes the Intra Moot Court Competition for the students of the university itself in furtherance to provide students with an opportunity to participate in various national and international moot court competitions which are based on different fields of law. Challenger rounds are also conducted for students to take part in other international moot court competitions. The Inaugural Ceremony of the Padma Vibhushan N.A. Palkhivala National Tax Moot Court Competition was conducted on the 26th November 2021 .

The Competition was a joint effort of the AIFTP and the GSTPAM along with MNLU Mumbai. The Ceremony was kicked off by inviting Prof. Dr. Dilip Ukey, the Vice-Chancellor of Maharashtra National Law University Mumbai. Dr. Ukey welcomed all the dignitaries and the participants in the virtual moot competition, he highlighted the importance of Constitution Day as the competition commenced. While remembering the great legend, Nani Palkhivala, Dr. Ukey recalled the tremendous efforts put in by Nani Palkhivala to save the constitution. In his concluding remarks, Dr. Ukey wished all the participants best of luck for the competition and highlighted that participation, gaining experience and broadening the horizon of knowledge are more important than winning.

SOCIETIES

ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION SOCIETY

The Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Society at Maharashtra National Law University (MNLU) Mumbai is committed to promoting a culture of alternative dispute resolution through various activities and competitions. With a mission to instil the aptitude for resolving disputes amicably and effectively, the ADR Society strives to create opportunities for students to learn and grow in this field.

The ADR Society has a diverse pool of students who come together to participate in various competitions and events. The society conducts competitions for the university, such as the Novice ADR Competition, to provide a platform for beginners or first-time competitors to enhance their skills for alternative dispute resolution. The Intra ADR Competition is also organized for the students of the university to participate in various national and international competitions based on different fields of law. Additionally, the society conducts Challenger rounds for students to take part in other international ADR and Client Counseling (CC) competitions.

One of the society's most successful events is Mediation Bombay, which is an international mediation competition aimed at promoting the use of mediation as an effective method of dispute resolution. Mediation Bombay attracts participation from leading law schools and universities across the country and is highly regarded in the ADR circuit.

The ADR Society at MNLU Mumbai is committed to nurturing the skills and abilities of students in the field of alternative dispute resolution. Through their various competitions and events, the society provides students with opportunities to hone their skills, gain practical experience, and develop their understanding of the legal system. The society's aim is to enrich the culture of alternative dispute resolution at both national and international platforms, and they continue to work towards achieving this goal.

CELLS

SC/ST Cell

In MNLU, Mumbai the SC/ST cell was established to uphold the social welfare of students in the reserved category and to support and bring students from such communities in the mainstream by providing scholarships, assistance in financial support to students from these sections of society from government organizations and other sources. They are also encouraged to be part of certain programs, that equips them with the necessary skills. It provides inputs in all the spheres of our law university, where an individual/student might go through some difficulties, ensure an atmosphere in which all such students feel safe and secure, enables provisions of redressing the grievances of SC/ST students faced by them. This is done to implement the policy of reservation as provided in the Constitution of India and to adhere to the guidelines and policies, and procedures to achieve the objectives of the government and the UGC .It includes and provides amenities to different castes, races, or tribes, which have been socially, economically, and educationally backward.

INTERNSHIP & PLACEMENT CELL

The Internship and Placement Cell at Maharashtra National Law University Mumbai was established in 2019 with the support of the administration, faculty, and students. The Internship and Placement Cell is a student-oriented body guided by the Advisory Committee that strives to facilitate the recruitment of students.

The Cell diligently serves as a coordinator between the students and diverse corporate firms, legal offices, and law chambers. The Cell also works diligently towards facilitating internship opportunities for undergraduate and postgraduate students. The Cell has tenaciously conducted On-Campus Recruitment Drives and successfully aided to place students in top-tier firms and organizations like Shardul Amarchand Mangaldas, Wadia Ghandy & Co., Adani Group, Citibank etc. In addition to assisting the recruitment process, the Cell also regularly schedules lectures by several subject-matter experts from the legal industry. The Cell guides students in discovering new facets that can extend their horizons and assist them in gaining acceptance into prestigious organizations.

The Cell is committed to the student's overall development and tries to nurture and prepare them for their future endeavors. The Internship and Placement Cell keeps working persistently and compassionately to achieve these aims by offering the students relevant internship and recruitment opportunities where they can develop, recognize their abilities, and pursue their interests.
