FROM THE VICE CHANCELLOR'S DESK

At Maharashtra National Law University, Mumbai, we take immense pride in our commitment to nurturing and honing the legal acumen of our students. Led by our esteemed faculty and guided by our core values of excellence, integrity, and justice, we strive to empower our students with the knowledge, skills, and ethical grounding necessary to become exemplary legal professionals. Under the dedicated leadership of our esteemed Chancellor, Chief Justice of India D.Y. Chandrachud, our institution strives to impart quality legal education to the budding legal minds of the country. Our faculty members work tirelessly to provide a rigorous academic curriculum combined with practical training and experiential learning opportunities. Through moot court competitions, internships, research projects, and interactive classroom sessions, we ensure that our students are equipped not only with a deep understanding of legal principles but also with the ability to apply them in real-world scenarios.

As we prepare to showcase the talents and achievements of our graduating batch through our Placement Brochure, we invite you to partner with us in this endeavor. Your valuable contributions in the form of testimonials, job opportunities, internships, placements, or any other means of support would greatly enrich the brochure and provide our students with exciting prospects for their future careers. Together, let us continue to shape the future of the legal profession by empowering the next generation of legal minds. I look forward to your enthusiastic participation and collaboration in making the recruitment drive a reflection of the excellence and potential of our students.

ABOUT MNLU MUMBAI

Maharashtra National Law University Mumbai (MNLU Mumbai), established in 2014 in the state of Maharashtra, has emerged as a beacon of excellence in legal education within a remarkably short span of nine years. Renowned for its innovative teaching methods, research-oriented mentorship, and individualized guidance, the University has continuously pushed the boundaries of legal academia.

Nestled in Mumbai, the financial capital of India, MNLU Mumbai strategically utilises its location to excel in specialized areas such as Corporate and Commercial Law, Banking Law, and Arbitration Law. The proximity to leading law firms and practitioners in the High Court enables students to secure internships that provide invaluable practical experience.

Under the guidance of Justice Bhushan Ramkrishna Gavai, the Chief Justice of India and Chancellor of the University, MNLU Mumbai is inspired by novel ideas and rich experience in the field of law. With a diverse student body hailing from across the nation, MNLU is recognized among the top law schools, both domestically and internationally.

Aligned with the demands of the contemporary era, MNLU's motto emphasizes the importance of compassion and well-roundedness in legal professionals. The establishment of specialized Centers of Excellence further underscores the University's commitment to nurturing holistic legal education.

MNLU Mumbai takes pride in its student-centric approach, providing ample opportunities for students to showcase their talents and skills. From national to international competitions in Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR), Moot Courts, and debates, MNLU students consistently excel, demonstrating their prowess in various fields.

Rooted in the values enshrined in the Indian Constitution, including Justice, Liberty, Equality, Fraternity, Secularism, and Humanism, MNLU Mumbai endeavors to instill these principles among its students, faculty, and stakeholders. Thus, MNLU aspires not only to be a center of legal knowledge but also an inclusive hub of humanity.

FACULTY SPEAKS

Dr. Abhijit Rohi
HOD (UG)

It gives me immense pride to introduce the graduating batch of 2026 of MNLU Mumbai. Throughout their time with us, these students have not only mastered the theoretical foundations of law but have also actively engaged in practical projects, research initiatives, and industry collaborations. They have consistently demonstrated a remarkable capacity for critical thinking, problem-solving, and innovation. They have represented the University in various International and National competitions of repute and have excelled in those. This graduating class is equipped with the skills and knowledge necessary to thrive in today's dynamic professional world. They are not just graduates; they are problem-solvers, innovators, and future leaders in their respective fields. I am confident that they will make significant contributions to your organizations and the wider community. I am immensely proud of their achievements and eagerly anticipate witnessing their future successes. I invite you to connect with these talented individuals and discover the unique value they bring. They are ready to embark on the next chapter of their professional journeys, and I am confident they will excel.

Dr. Kiran Rai
HOD (PG)

The Batch of 2026 is like Rainbow. It is a bundle of students not only aspiring for Corporate jobs but considerable numbers are motivated to join litigation. The students are fun-loving as well as very focussed towards their studies and career paths. They have the quality of a good leader and at the same time be an efficient team member. Good number of students understand their duty towards society and people around them.

Best of luck to the batch of 26 as they begin their professional life's journey. May they continuously blossom and inspire positivity in all those they meet.

FACULTY SPEAKS

Dr. Vaibhav Sonule
Placement Officer

As the placement season unfolds, we take great pride in the Batch of 2026, who have prepared with dedication, sharpened their skills, and faced challenges with determination. We are hopeful that you will continue to work hard, make the most of every opportunity, and grow with each experience. We are confident that you will carry forward the legacy of our institution with integrity, professionalism, and excellence.

Dr. Garima Pal
Faculty-in-charge

The legal profession has expanded significantly over the years, and for law students, the scope now goes far beyond courtroom litigation. Today, legal practitioners have opportunities across diverse fields such as corporate governance, banking regulations, and human rights advocacy, among many others. At MNLU Mumbai, we take pride in engaging with a batch of students who bring a wide range of interests—from public policy to corporate law. This batch includes skilled researchers, passionate negotiators, and compelling orators. We are confident they will be valuable contributors to this noble profession and make a positive impact through their work. We encourage them to remain lifelong learners, deepen their expertise over time, and remain steadfast advocates of fundamental human values. Just like the graduates before them, we see bright futures and abundant opportunities ahead for these students, and we wish each of them the very best in their careers.

SOCITIES AT MNLU

Moot Court Society (MCS)

The Moot Court Society (MCS) of Maharashtra National Law University, Mumbai is dedicated to nurturing advocacy and legal research skills among law students. Through a variety of intra-university competitions like the Novice Intra, Intra Moot, and International Challengers Moot, the MCS allocates prestigious national and international moot court competitions such as Jessup, Stetson, NLS Trilegal and Justice R.K. Tankha. The society also organizes workshops and training sessions to prepare students for mooting, emphasizing research, drafting, and oral advocacy. Known for its excellence, MCS teams have achieved remarkable success in competitions, enhancing the university's reputation. MCS shapes skilled legal professionals ready to excel in their careers.

Alternate Dispute Resolution Society (ADRS)

The Alternate Dispute Resolution Society (ADRS) is dedicated to fostering a culture of mediation, negotiation, and collaborative problem-solving in the university. Recognizing the immense potential of alternative dispute resolution (ADR) methods in shaping the future of conflict resolution, the society actively works to promote awareness and skill development in this field. It organizes various events, including mediation and client counseling competitions, to provide students with practical exposure and enhance their expertise. Additionally, ADRS proudly hosts Mediation Bombay, an esteemed international mediation and negotiation competition held annually, drawing participants worldwide and cementing the university's reputation as a hub for ADR excellence.

Literary & Debating Society (LDS)

LDS stands as a vibrant cornerstone of MNLU's intellectual landscape, where students come together to explore the worlds of literature and rhetoric. The Society's commitment to nurturing debate skills is exemplified through its competitions, which includes the Intra Asian Parliamentary Debate and the Intra British Parliamentary Debate, where students hone their argumentative prowess. Beyond debates, LDS extends its reach beyond MNLU, through innovative competitions like the Veritas in Judicium: Verdict Deliberation Competition, which challenges participants to analyze legal scenarios and draft judgements, and National Essay Writing Competitions that showcase students' written advocacy skills.

Student Bar Council (SBC)

The Student Bar Council serves as a dedicated forum for enhancing the collective voice of students. This elected body plays a crucial role in representing student concerns and issues, acting as an efficient medium between the student body and the administration. Committed to the betterment of the college, the Student Bar Council tirelessly strives to address and resolve student concerns, ensuring a conducive academic environment. The council actively works towards enhancing the overall college experience, aiming to propel the institution to new heights. As advocates for student welfare, the SBC remains steadfast in its commitment to fostering a harmonious and thriving community within the university.

Sports Association

The association dedicatedly works towards encouraging sports participation amongst the students and mindful of that it organises events throughout the year. The Sports Association works tirelessly to organize its inter-batches fests of the year i.e 'ZEST' and 'ABHIKRAMA', wherein sports such as Cricket, Football, Basketball, Table Tennis, Badminton, Chess, Carrom, etc. are included. We believe that sports should not only be considered as a co-curricular activity but also a professional career option for students. The constant efforts of the sports association is to make students aware of the budding sports opportunities and encourage their sports participation.

KAAMIL

Amid the stressful curriculum of law school, Cultural society strives to make it fun, KAAMIL, our very own cultural association, organizes event ranging from Ganpati to Zest and what not. The various student activities organized by the KAAMIL offers students the much needed 'break' from the busy, officious, and monotonous schedule of Law School. The cultural society caters to diverse student interests varying from cultural pursuits like music, dance, and literary activities of drama, shayari, and literature.

Law, Humanities, and Social Sciences Collective (LHSS)

The Law, Humanities, and Social Sciences Collective, a student-run body, seeks to address the global imbalance in the intersectionality of law and social science discourse, prioritizing perspectives from the Global South. The Collective's Blog, attracts a diverse array of submissions aiming to explore this intersection. The Collective organizes a Virtual Symposium which provides a platform for a comprehensive dialogue to take place. Additionally, an Internship Programme and a Policy Drafting Competition is also organized, creating a platform for the exchange of ideas and insights, furthering its mission to bridge gaps in interdisciplinary discussions.

MNLU Mumbai Law Review Blog

MNLU Mumbai Law Review Blog is a student-led, peer-reviewed publication that provides a forum for scholarly dialogue in law and related areas. It focuses on fostering critical thinking and advancing legal research by publishing high-quality contributions on a broad array of topics. As MNLU Mumbai's flagship online publication, the blog is dedicated to addressing contemporary legal and societal challenges while promoting diverse perspectives. The Blog is open to students, academics, and legal professionals, it encourages submissions from varied voices. The platform also keeps readers informed about legal advancements and offers in-depth analyses to engage with evolving trends in the legal field.

Pro Bono Club

The Pro Bono Club operates in collaboration with the Nyaya Bandhu (Pro Bono Legal Services) Program under the Department of Justice, Ministry of Law and Justice. Rooted in the principles of justice, accessibility, and empowerment, the club works towards ensuring the effective implementation of the law, particularly for marginalized and underserved communities. A landmark achievement includes the successful PIL in the Bombay High Court, which led to the appointment of 400 custodians across Maharashtra and the digitization of legal records, reinforcing its commitment to systemic reform and legal outreach.

LIFE AT MNLU MUMBAI!

STUDENT AND UNIVERSITY INITIATIVES

Centre for Training & Research in Commercial Regulations is a hub of academic excellence and professional development. In the academic year 2023-24 the centre has spearheaded various initiatives such as the 2nd volume of Journal on Corporate Law and Commercial Regulations. The Centre has also successfully launched its very own blog i.e The Forum for Corporate and Commercial Regulations, hosting industry leaders delivering insights on pivotal subjects like Mergers & Acquisitions and ESG. The International Sustainability Conclave, resulting in an MoU with Dentons Link Legal, reflects its global impact. The Centre has also announced its First MNLU-M National Corporate Client Counselling Competition 2025. With every event and collaboration, the Centre equips students to zealously lead in the corporate legal landscape.

Centre for Applied Research in Public Health Law, Rights and Policy was established to promote and advance research, scholarship and spread awareness in the areas of public health policies, public health programs and policy reforms in national and global contexts. It was established on 17th May, 2023. As an advocate for health legislation reform, healthcare system improvements, and the implementation of health policies, the Centre endeavors to disseminate knowledge about existing policy responses to health challenges and rights concerning health. It also strives to critically analyze health policies to ensure compliance with fundamental rights. The Centre concentrates on a multidisciplinary approach to identifying health law-related challenges and engages in research, debate, and consultation that facilitates effective reforms in the health sector.

Centre for Women, Child Rights, and Gender Justice is dedicated to fostering a society where dignity, respect, and equality are fundamental rights for all individuals, regardless of gender or age. Our mission is to uphold the rights of women and children while promoting gender equality across all facets of life. Our programs focus on dismantling the structural and cultural barriers that hinder full participation in society by actively combating discrimination, violence, and poverty issues that disproportionately affect women and children. At the Centre for Women, Child, and Gender Justice, we believe that everyone deserves the opportunity to thrive, our collective efforts spanning individuals, communities, and governments are crucial in building a more just and equitable world for all.

Centre for Advanced Training in Taxation Laws (CATTL) is focused on serving as a forum for enhancement of scholarly work in the field of taxation. The key objective of the centre is to carry out coordinated research in this field. Our aim is to engage law students with the ever-evolving taxation laws. The objective of centre is to research for development of taxation policies and to establish a forum for engagement in the field of taxation. The Centre offers P.G. Diploma courses, Certificate Courses, Practical Training sessions, Workshops, Webinars and Tax Law Conference where students of law along with tax law practitioners present scholarly research papers.

The Journal on Corporate Law & Commercial Regulations is an academic publication dedicated to advancing the field of corporate law and commercial regulations. Established with a commitment to fostering rigorous research and scholarship, the journal serves as a vital resource for legal practitioners, scholars, and students alike. The Journal offers timely insights into emerging trends and challenges within the legal landscape. Each issue features a diverse array of contributions, including original research articles, case comments, and book reviews.

FLAGSHIP EVENTS

MNLU Mumbai organises its flagship competition under the aegis of the ADRS, Mediation Bombay every year, with the fifth edition currently underway. It serves as a premier platform for aspiring mediators and negotiators, contributing to the evolving landscape of Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) in India.

With a legacy of four successful editions, and having recently concluded with the preliminary rounds of the 5th edition, this year we are eager to welcome teams from India, the US and Singapore for the advanced rounds in February 2025. The primary objective of Mediation Bombay is to promote the growth of ADR practices in India and improve their quality. Having collaborated with firms and institutes such as Nishith Desai and Associates, Cyril Amarchand Mangaldas, the Indian Institute of Arbitration and Mediation, Presolve 360 and many more renowned institutes competition seeks to reshape perceptions of mediation, emphasising that it involves active participation rather than passive observation. Mediation Bombay not only serves as a competitive platform but also as an enriching educational experience that prepares law students for real-world mediation challenges.

The MNLU-M National Corporate Client Counselling Competition (NCCCC), organized by the Centre for Training & Research in Commercial Regulations (CTRRCR) at MNLU Mumbai, sets a new benchmark in corporate client counselling by challenging participants on critical areas of Competition Law, Contract Law, Insolvency Law, Company Law, Securities Law, Taxation Law, and other commercial laws.

As the inaugural edition of this prestigious national event, it aims to bring together some of the brightest legal minds to hone their advisory and negotiation skills in a simulated corporate legal environment. The competition has been meticulously crafted to mirror real-world corporate legal challenges. Strengthening its impact, Luthra and Luthra joins us as our Partner, Lexport contributes as our Advisory Partner, and Ashlar Law serving us our strategic partner bringing its deep-rooted expertise and industry presence to enhance the competitive experience. Ex Curia expands our professional networks as our Networking Partner, with SCC Times and SCC Online amplifying our reach as our Knowledge and Media Partners. The MNLU-M NCCCC exemplifies our university's unwavering commitment to academic excellence, corporate legal training, and client counselling mastery, shaping the next generation of corporate legal professionals.

RECRUITMENT PROCESS

Pre-Placement Offer - Prospective employers are requested to intimate the IP Cell about the selection of any student of the Batch of 2026 for a PPO at placement@mnlumumbai.edu.in.

02

Initial Communication- The IP Cell shall issue invitations to recruiters along with the placement brochure and relevant details. Alternatively, organisations may convey career opportunities by writing to placement@mnlumumbai.edu.in.

03

Pre-Placement Talks- Recruiters may conduct interactive sessions on-campus or via videoconference to outline the job profile, remuneration, and other relevant details. They may also deliver lectures on niche legal areas. Preferred dates should be communicated to the IP Cell via email or phone at least one week in advance.

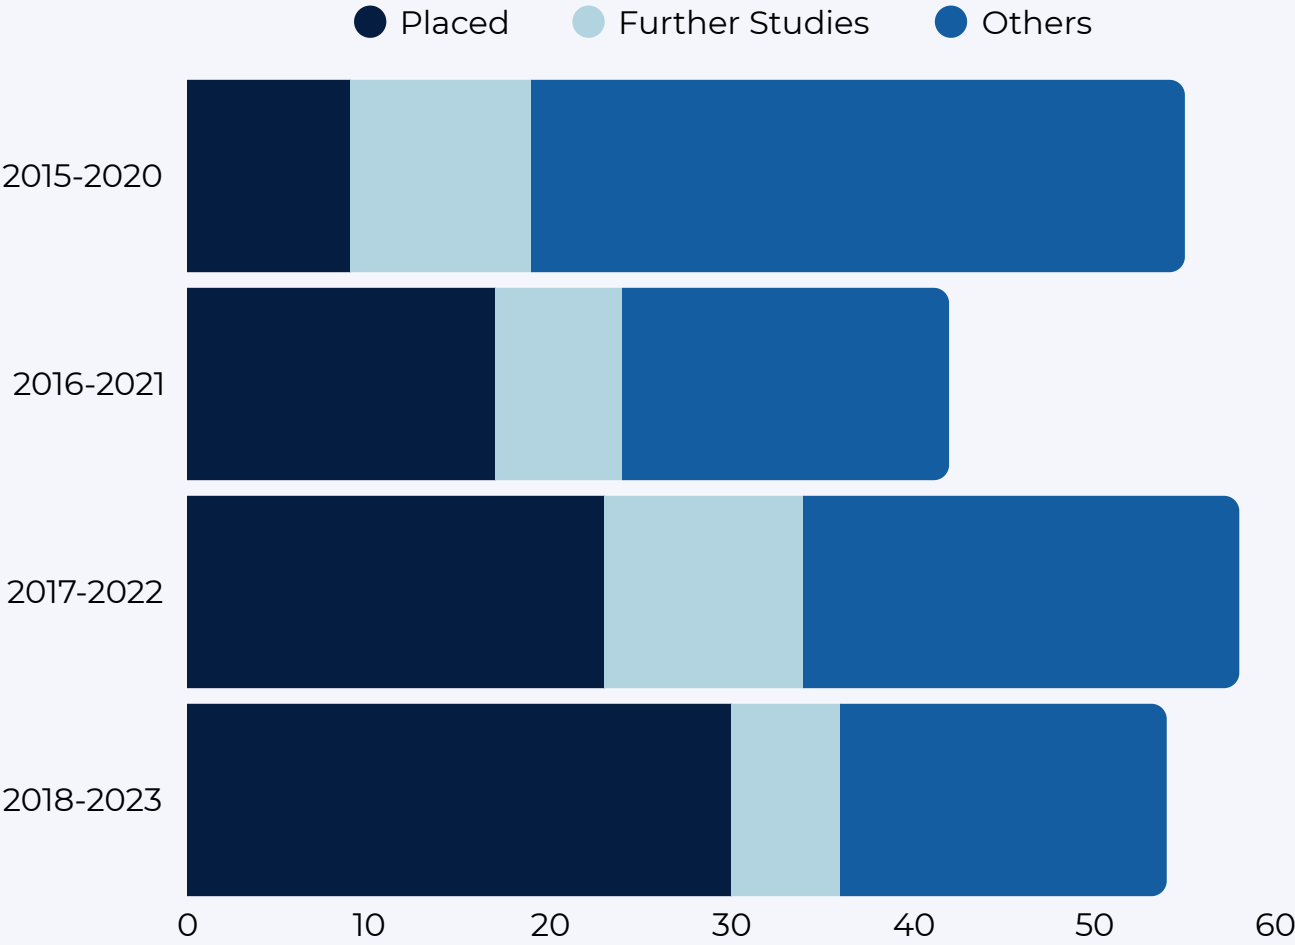

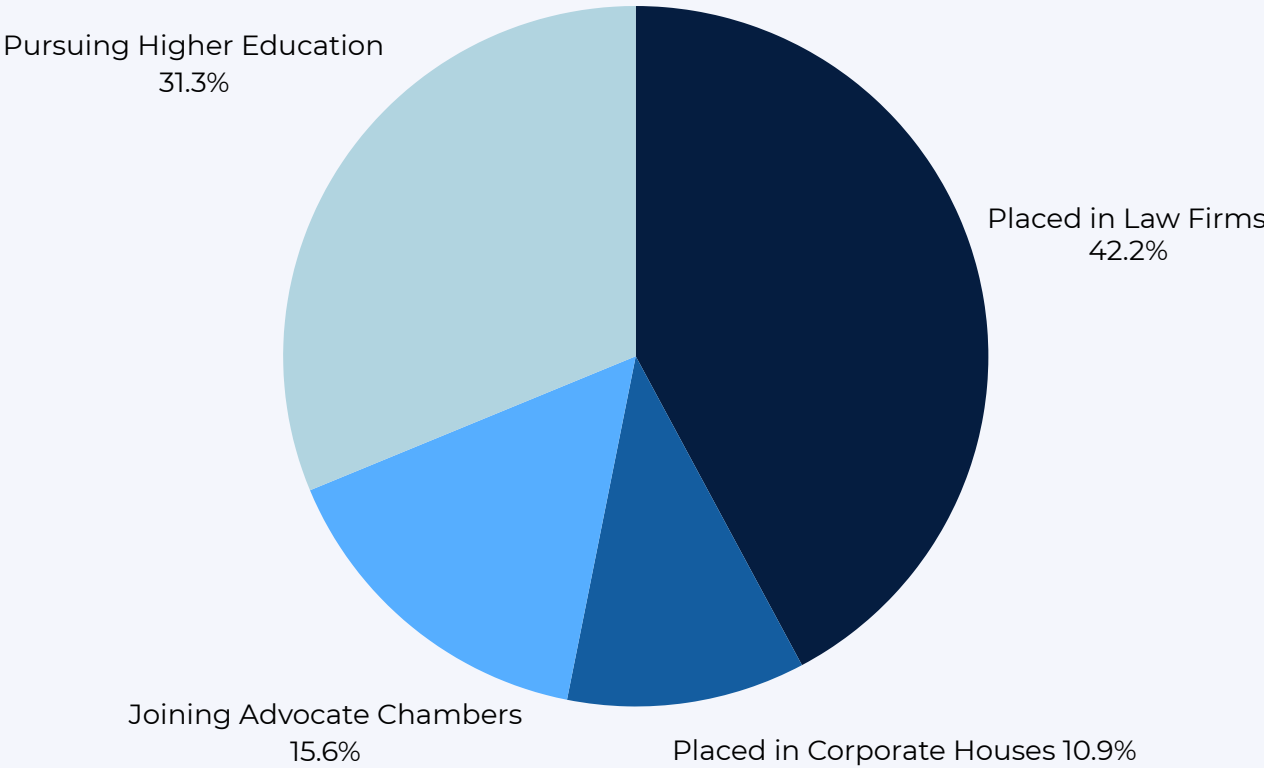

04

Pre-Interview Screening- Recruiters may, at their discretion, conduct a pre-interview screening process prior to the final interview. This may include virtual interviews, group discussions, written tests, or any other method deemed appropriate. Post-screening, recruiters must share the final interview list and a waitlist with the IP Cell at least 48 hours before the interview.

05

Interview Process & Results- All interviews may be conducted online, on-campus, or at the recruiter's office, as deemed appropriate by the recruiter. The IP Cell is the only authorised body for all communications and decisions related to the recruitment process for the Batch of 2026.

ABOUT THE INTERNSHIP AND PLACEMENT CELL

The Internship and Placement Cell (IP Cell) at Maharashtra National Law University (MNLU) Mumbai is a student-centric initiative dedicated to guiding and supporting the career aspirations of our students. Led by a team of proactive and motivated students, the IP Cell serves as a crucial liaison between our student community and the corporate world, striving to secure quality internship and placement opportunities. Committed to excellence, the IP Cell operates year-round to assist students in securing internships and employment with esteemed organizations, firms, and legal practitioners. Our comprehensive approach encompasses various activities, including organizing placement weeks and guest lectures. Through these efforts, we aim to empower MNLU students to navigate diverse career paths within the field of law and beyond. At IP Cell, we uphold values of professionalism, integrity, and fairness in all our interactions.

IP Cell has expanded its presence on platforms like LinkedIn to enhance communication and engagement with recruiters. This strategic move enables us to bridge the gap between students and potential employers, facilitating seamless networking and collaboration opportunities. Through our LinkedIn page, we showcase the talents and achievements of MNLU students, making it easier for recruiters to connect with promising candidates. By embracing this digital age, the IP Cell aims to fulfil their goal in fostering strong relations with recruiters, ensuring mutual understanding and benefits to both parties involved.

In essence, IP Cell remains dedicated to empowering MNLU students and facilitating their transition from academia to the professional realm. With a focus on innovation and adaptability, we continue to evolve our strategies to meet the changing needs of students and recruiters alike. Through our collective efforts, we aim to shape the future success of MNLU students and contribute to the advancement of the legal profession.
